

WNTC

While most music fans are aware of the fact that super Swedish group, ABBA, is one of the most interesting and appealing groups on the charts today, Lars Malstrom, Press Attache at the Los Angeles

THE ROBERT W. MORGAN SPECIAL OF THE WEEK

Swedish Consulate reveals something else again about these four artists as heard on "The Robert W. Morgan Special of the Week" on WNTC, Tuesday, December 4th at 8 pm. Malstrom tells how ABBA, through it's magnificent audience appeal and world-wide popularity and record sales has become "Sweden's most profitable enterprise in net". In fact, two members of the group, Agnetha Falskog and Benny Andersson actually own one of the Stockholm Archipelago Islands! Hear about it this week on "Special of the Week".

Artists upcoming on "The Robert W. Morgan Special of the Week" are Bob Welch, The Beach Boys, Gloria Gaynor, Al Stewart, The Doobie Brothers, Heart, Todd Rundgren, Dr. Hook, Roberta Flack, Alice Cooper, Georgy Benson, America and Dolly Parton.

"Special of the Week" is hosted by Robert W. Morgan, produced and written by Allen Daniel Goldblatt with production and distribution by Watermark.